ELECTRONIC DELIVERY DISCLOSURE

By clicking either the “I Accept” or the “I/we Accept” button below, you are providing consent for TIAA Direct®, a division of TIAA, FSB (“We”, “Us”), to provide required documents to you electronically. This consent for electronic delivery covers all documents that we are required to give you for this and every one of your accounts with TIAA Direct and is effective until withdrawn by you. You should print or otherwise retain a copy of this disclosure for your records.

In order to open a TIAA Direct account on-line, you must consent to electronic delivery of all documents. If you do not want to consent to electronic delivery of documents, you may be able to open an account by contacting us at 1-855-TIAA FSB (1-855-842-2372).

Agreeing to accept required documents electronically means that once we present them to you and, if required, you click to accept them, the terms contained in those documents will apply to you and your accounts with TIAA Direct. It also means that we may not mail you copies of documents that are provided electronically.

Here are some of the documents that we may provide to you electronically:

- Account Terms and Conditions and disclosures related to opening TIAA Direct account
- Periodic statements
- Cancelled checks
- Any disclosure or notification that is required under applicable regulations. This may include, but is not limited to, information about a maturing certificate of deposit, a change- in-terms notice, or information about any dispute you might raise under the Electronic Funds Transfer or Truth in Lending Acts
- Our Consumer Privacy Notice
- Year-end tax documents

We may, at our discretion, make electronic documents available to you via this website or by e-mail, and may choose to send paper copies of documents to you even though we made or could have made them available to you electronically.

You can withdraw your consent to electronic delivery, but doing so will not affect the legal effectiveness, validity, or enforceability of the electronic documents that were provided to you before your withdrawal became effective. If you withdraw consent for electronic delivery, we will provide documents to you using the United State Postal Service.

You can request that we send you a paper copy of any document that was originally provided electronically (we may charge you a fee for providing some documents), withdraw your consent to receive future documents electronically, or provide us with updated information about how we can contact you electronically by writing to us or by using a method that may be made available to you on this website. If your e-mail address changes, you must provide us with the new address at least five (5) days before the change either by writing to us or by using a method that may be made available to you on this website.

In order to receive electronic documents you will need a working connection to the Internet. Your browser must support the Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) protocol. SSL provides a secure channel to send and receive data over the Internet through HS encryption capabilities. Microsoft Internet Explorer® version 7 or higher and Mozilla Firefox® version 3 or higher support this feature. You will also need either a printer connected to your computer to print documents or sufficient hard drive space available to save the information.

We may change this disclosure by posting the revised version on our website.

By clicking either the “I Accept” or the “I/we Accept” button below, you are confirming that you consent to electronic delivery of documents, that your system meets the requirements described above, that you are able to access documents presented on our website or via e-mail, and that you can either print or electronically store these documents.
